HISTORY 451A/3 Section AA

SEMINAR IN AMERICAN HISTORY

Special Subject: HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA SINCE WWI

INSTRUCTOR: S. Scheinberg Th 16:05-17:55

DESCRIPTION: The issues generally included in human rights are so varied that it is necessary to be selective. This seminar will concentrate on the following areas: racism and anti-semitism, aboriginal peoples, immigrants and refugees, freedom of expression and sexual orientation.

FORMAT: In the first term there will be readings and reports on the historical literature on both the United States and Canada, pertaining to the areas cited above. In both terms we will hopefully have some guest speakers who may, of course, have a more contemporary perspective. Toward the end of the second term you will be presenting your own research papers to the seminar.

REQUIREMENTS: Regular attendance and active participation is essential to a successful seminar. Weekly readings will be assigned. In the first term you will submit a short essay (10-15 pages) surveying the literature and sources in one of our topic areas. The major work for the course will be a research paper using a significant quantity of primary sources.
